

Teacher Evaluation Report 2021-2022

IQAC Conducted Student feedback on teachers to assess the quality of education being imparted to the student community. 281 students from various departments rendered their feedback on their teachers through google forms created by IQAC. A five-point scale was given to students for the assessment of teachers. Collecting and analysing the reports were performed confidentially and handed over to the principal.

As the most important component of teaching-learning is communication, the first question was about the skill of the teacher to communicate. More than 94% of the students have the opinion that the communication skill of the teachers is good and above average. The opinion of students about the skill of the teachers to generate interest in the subject being taught and the ability to combine the subject with current affairs and the latest developments were also sought. More than 95% of the students are of the opinion that teachers possess the good skill to generate interest in the subject being taught. Also, there was a question about the ability of teachers to teach other related courses to provide new information. More than 93% of the students are of the opinion that teachers are good in this regard.

The availability of the teacher outside class hours for general discussion and help and the teacher's participation in extracurricular activities were also enquired about. A very small percentage of the students are having the opinion that some teachers are to be better in this aspect. The ability to design test papers, assignments and project work plays a vital role in the curriculum. About 93% of the students have the opinion that teachers are excellent or very good in designing test papers, assignments and project works.

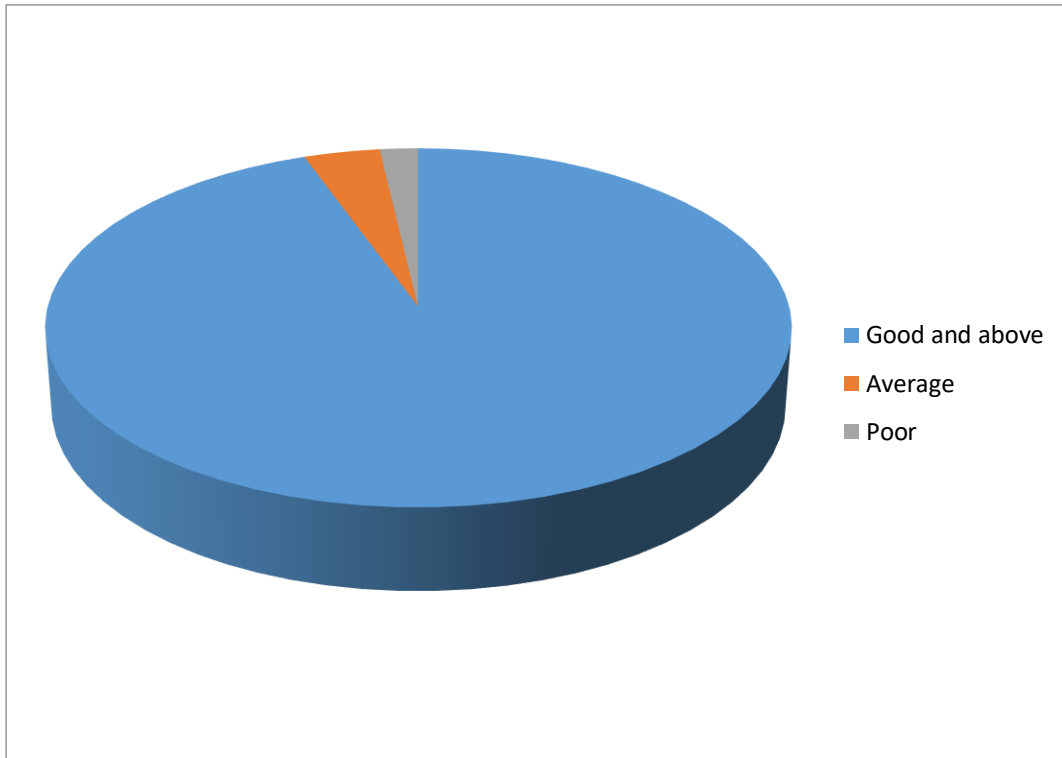

The students feel very much impressed by the methods adopted by the teacher to obtain the opinion of students as feedback and about the knowledge of the teacher in the subject taught and the sincerity and commitment of the teacher. About 97% of the students give the teachers a good or above overall rating.
